Colonial Secretary's correspondence

31 October 1832 (CSLS 4/3675 pp457-459, reel 1046). From Col Sec to Princ Sup't Convicts re 11 boys arrived on the Planter and 20 boys on the Hercules (including Frederick Scammell). "I am directed by His Excellency the Governor to request that you will apprise the Several Parties that it is the intention of Government to continue these Boys in their service for the full period of Seven Years (unless their sentences sooner expire) and that in consideration of this, it is expected that they will make a point of neither returning nor transferring them during an equal time." "It is also expected that each Master will exert himself to impart to these Boys such habits of industry and propriety as may render them useful, and if possible respectable members of society when they attain their age of manhood."
